

12 Week High School Baseball Program

The Balls-n-Strikes High School Baseball Program is open to 8th graders, freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. Our goal is for every player to receive a college scholarship. While there is no guarantee, we have over 1000 players playing college baseball and 121 Major League draft picks, including 22 picks from the 2009 draft. Schools include Univ. of Texas, Univ. of Arizona, Univ. of Arkansas, Wichita State, Univ. of Missouri, Missouri State, Univ. of Kansas, Univ. of Alabama, SLU, Univ. of Illinois, Southeast Missouri State, Central Missouri State, Notre Dame, Baylor, Univ. of Miami, Univ. of Mississippi and many others.

The major objective of our high school program is to prepare athletes to perform at their highest level possible during the high school season when college coaches and recruiters are scouting. Our V-coach video system is used throughout the program to fine-tune the mechanics of every player. Our certified staff of instructors will teach college prep techniques/mechanics while building more confidence and improving your mental approach to the game. Limited space available. Spots are reserved in the order they are received.
